

Diagnosis:

Right-sided hemicolectomy preparation shows tumor-free resection margins with a tubular adenoma of the ascending colon with moderate dysplasia (synonym: low-grade intraepithelial neoplasia) and includes a moderately differentiated polypous adenocarcinoma of the cecum with infiltration of the perimuscular fatty tissue and several regional lymph node metastases (G2, pT3 L1 V0 locally R0 pN2 6/33).